EXPLORE KINSTON

Welcome to Kinston. Where just beyond your front porch you may find yourself strolling through a park, riding a trail through open lands, meeting friends for a tasty lunch or a very happy happy hour at the Hub Café by Fresh Plate, gathering for an outdoor concert or a seasonal community celebration. All with towering Rocky Mountain views at every westward glance. Then again, sometimes your front porch is as far as you need to venture to know you're somewhere special.

A McWhinney Community

We first envisioned Centerra nearly three decades ago. And as the community has grown, so have we. By revitalizing Denver's iconic Union Station, creating the Dairy Block in LoDo and launching Baseline in Broomfield, we've learned a lot. And with the new villages emerging in Centerra, you could say we're bringing all those lessons home.
